

SELF-WALK TOUR - LTH TO UNIVERSITY AULA

This map will show you the way and guide you if you choose to walk to the Awards Ceremony on Thursday June 15.

1. The Symposium Venue

Exit Matteannexet through the main entrance and walk west on Sölvegatan. Cross Tornavägen.

2. Faculty of Science

When you cross Tornavägen you leave the Faculty of Engineering and enter the Faculty of Science. As you walk down Tornavägen you will walk have the Department of Physics on the left and the Department of Astronomy on the right. To the right you will see the old water tower, which is an observatory today.

3. Sölvegatan

As you continue walking down Sölvegatan you will see the University Hospital on right which its many surrounding buildings, which is a part of the Faculty of Medicine. The Faculty of Medicine is the second largest faculty at the University.

After walking down Sölvegatan a couple of hundred meters you enter the joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology. Here you should turn right on and continue on Helgonavägen, turn left after 100 meters and enter a park.

4. University Library

Lund University libraries consist of 26 different libraries, however the large building in the middle of this small park is the main library building. The University libraries were founded the same year as the University, 1666, but the building that you see here is from 1907.

5. Kvarteret Paradis

Continue south, cross Allahelgonakyrkogata, and walk through the small arch. Then turn right and follow the small pedestrian road that turns south after 100 m. Now you are passing several the Department of Social Sciences and the Department of Psychology. This area is filled with students during the semester.

6. University building

Continue south and cross Paradisgatan. Now you are at the north side of the University Building, where the Awards Ceremony will be held.

It can be seen that the architect who designed the building was fond of antiquity, with columns and stately crowns

